

Dear Martim,

Hi! How are you doing?

I'm sorry I've not written to you in a while but I've been very busy. I have great news though, I accepted a new job offer in Lisbon and I'm currently in the process of finding an apartment there. I know you're from there so if you could recommend a neighborhood or have any advice for me I'd be glad to hear it!

Now that I'm moving to Portugal I hope that we can also spend some time together. I know you always have a full schedule but I miss the times we shared together and I think it'd be very fun if you would like to show me around, maybe visit some bars and grab a drink to catch up.

This new job I accepted makes me thrilled as I will be working at one of the most important software companies in the world in a very engaging management role that will test my abilities but will also provide me great opportunities to learn and develop my leadership skills.

I can't wait to see you, I have a lot of things to talk about since we've last met and I bet you do too.

See you soon,

Mihai
